(Collection 15)

Scope and Content

Murray Wells Deming served the Seventh-day Adventist denomination as a minister for 44 years. Born in Broken Bow, Nebraska on November 11, 1909 to Warren and Margaret Deming, the family moved to Berrien County, Michigan in 1920s after their ranch failed. It was here that Deming and his mother were baptized and he felt called to the ministry. Deming attended Emmanuel Missionary College where he met Dorothy Regina Hanson. They both graduated in May 1932 and were married shortly thereafter. Throughout his long career, Deming pastored in Indiana, Oklahoma, Nebraska, Ohio and California, including the College View Seventh-day Adventist Church from 1950 to 1964. Deming died on November 27, 2007 in Green Valley, Arizona.

This collection contains correspondence from Deming's later years as pastor of the College View Seventh-day Adventist Church.
