William V. Albee Collection
(Collection 17)

Scope and Content

William Vanostrand Albee was born July 3, 1897 in Weyauwego, Wisconsin and died January 3, 1983 in Calimesa, California. He graduated from Union College in 1924. During his career, Albee was principal of San Diego Academy, and taught at Hawaiian Mission and Loma Linda academies.

This collection contains Albee's 1924 Union College annual, the Golden Cords, which is filled with the autographs of classmates and teachers, and additional items found inside the annual.

Arrangement

The arrangement of the collection has been done by the Union College Library Heritage Room.

Provenance

Given to the library by Dorothy Sullivan in April 2008. Sullivan originally received these items from Albee's adopted daughter, Dorothy Christman.

Use

All users of this collection will complete the [Application to Use Unpublished Records], and observe the regulation specified in the [Patron's Agreement] and [Researcher's Code of Conduct]. All records in this collection are open and available for research. Suggested citation for this collection:
