Policies:

We, the undersigned, indicate by our signatures that we understand the following conditions apply to students enrolled in the Advanced Enrollment Program at Union College. (Sign in order listed)

- Students enrolling in on-campus and/or online courses during the summer term will pay half-price tuition (some courses may not apply).
 - For more information, please visit www.ucollege.edu/tuition or contact Student Financial Services at 402-486-2505.Payment is due when the application paperwork is submitted. Applications without payment will not be processed.
- Juniors may take 1 course and Seniors may take 2 courses.
- Seniors must have a minimum cum GPA of 3.0 and juniors must have a minimum GPA of 3.5. Students not meeting the GPA standards may petition to enroll with the permission of the Union College Registrar and Principal.
- Enrollment in summer classes is open to a student who has completed the junior year, but not a student about to enter the junior year.
- A student must have the appropriate background and meet course prerequisites to enroll in a Union College class.
- It is recommended that Advanced Enrollment students take 100-level classes.
- Union College students have priority over Advanced Enrollment students in gaining entrance to classes with limited enrollment.
- All students are expected to take final examinations at the time printed on the semester examination schedule.
